NEW FOCUS ON SOCIAL EMOTIONAL ELEMENTS AND PERSONAL WELL-

SIX ANCHOR STANDARDS

The new NYS Physical Education Learning Standards (2020) include six anchor standards of the physically literate student:

Standard 1:
Demonstrates competency in a variety of motor skills and movement patterns.
(Psychomotor)

Standard 2:
Applies knowledge of concepts, principles, strategies, and tactics related to movement and performance.
(Psychomotor and Cognitive)

READING THE STANDARDS

The Physical Education Standards are organized by grade-levels from PreK-8, followed by grade-banded levels: 9-10 (Level 1) and 11-12 (Level 2).

f Anchor Standards represent broad statements about the expectations for students as they prepare for high school graduation, positioning themselves into leading a healthy and active life.

f Strands delineate and further define the anchor standards.

f Outcomes are grade-level expectations, derived from the strands,

GRADE-LEVEL EXPECTATIONS: EXAMPLES

STANDARD 4.

Exhibits responsible personal and social behavior that respects self and others.

Strand 2:

Social Awareness and Relationship Skills

Outcome- Grade 7:

Demonstrates civility by cooperating with classmates in physical activity settings.

STANDARD 6.

Recognizes career opportunities and manages personal and community resources related to physical activity and fitness to achieve and maintain overall wellness.

NYS PHYSICAL EDUCATION LEARNING STANDARDS REVIEW: CODE VS. CURRICULUM

New standards were crafted broadly to provide flexibility for both physical education and health education.
