The NewYork State Seal of Billiteracy (NYSSB) recognizes students from district, charter, and nonzpublic schools who have attained

(one of which must be English) by high school gradu

The intent of the NYSSB is to:

- affirm the value of diversity in a multilingual society;
- encourage the study of languages;
- identify high school graduates with multilingualism and multiliteracy skills for employers;
- provide universities with additional information about applicants seeking admission;
- prepare students with twenty-first century skills;
 and
- recognize the value of world and home language instruction in schools.

The NYSSB carries the highest weight on a school's "Readiness Measures", on par with the NYS Regents Diploma with Advanced Designation and Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate exams. This also includes current ELLs not in the graduation cohort earning the NYSSB and a Regents Diploma.

of NYCDOE district schools offered the NYSSB in 2021-22.
